

MRS. NOTT CRIED "YOU LIE"

MRS. NOTTY TRIED TO LIE AND RUSHED AT WITNESS

Became Hysterical When William Rooney Testified That He Waited Two Nights With a Hatchet For George B. Nott—Court Recessed Until the Accused Regained Composure—Witness Testified That Wade Had Promised Him $200 If He Would Beat Up Nott.

Ridgeport, Conn., May 31.—The trial of Mrs. Ethel H. Nott, charged with the murder of her husband, was interrupted this afternoon for 45 minutes as a result of the defendant becoming hysterical when William (Bo) Rooney testified that he saw her with a hatchet on the night of the murder.

"You lie. Don't you say that you were ever with him," Mrs. Nott said to the witness.

The witness continued, while she said he never given to him by Mrs. Nott.

A week before the murder, Rooney testified, Mrs. Nott came to his home and Wade and was given a hatchet. The witness said that he sat on the front porch of the house at 12:30 a. m. on the night of the murder and saw Mrs. Nott and was awakened about 1:30 a. m. by Mrs. Nott who told him that she did not think her husband was home.

She said that the prison home was empty and that the prison home was empty.

Rooney, an employer of the Bridgeport Police Department, said he had seen the proposal merely was to "beat off Nott" up.

Under cross-examination today, Henry Shannon, of counsel for the defense, Rooney said Wade promised him $200 if he would beat off Nott.

"I would not have agreed to beat off anybody for $200," asked the attorney.

"Naturally," said Rooney.

The witness said it was five weeks after the murder that he was called to the Isolation hospital, testified that he met Wade and Mrs. Nott on a street about two weeks before the murder. Wade told him, he said, that Mrs. Nott had had trouble with her husband and that he was going to shoot her. Wade was holding. Wade showed him a revolver, would like some help in giving Nott a er the murder before he told anybody of his connection with the case. Other witnesses include Daniel O. Fennell, former partner of Nott; Mrs. Margaret Bosko, Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Arvidsen and Veronica Durig, all former neighbors of Mrs. Nott.

The appropriation of $15,000,000 granted the shipping board for completion of vessels now under construction was withdrawn by the senate committee which, however, added an amendment providing for a 10 per cent increase in the cost of the expenses including maintenance and operation of vessels and for the completion of the vessels under construction. This would give the shipping board a net in-increase in appropriation of $50,000. The bill as reported by the committee retains the house appropriation of $200,000, for enforcement of the prohibition act. The bill as reported retains the sum of $425,000 for the inter-departmental social hygiene board.

Washington, May 11.—Recent orders by the military to move in control in Pekin and Tientsin, and to take over the Sea, head of the Canton government in China, were characterized as "absurd" by a spokesman of the American Legation, Dr. Sun's personal representative here.

To order Dr. Sun's capture when knowing full well that it could not be done," the statement said was a confession of "utter impotence." Dr. Sun's release was demanded.

To have the committees order Al Lucking, Ford's counsel to turn over names of persons who had been in contact with Mr. Lucking objected vigorously, but was decided that the list of witnesses would be given up.

Dr. Sun was released from prison immediately after each had been penned.
